Simple Text Document

This is a simple text-only PDF document created for testing PDF extraction functionality.

It contains multiple paragraphs with standard formatting and no complex elements.

The purpose of this document is to verify that basic text extraction works correctly.

Extractors should be able to identify paragraph breaks and preserve basic structure.

This document uses a single column layout with left-aligned text.